

Water pump bearings manufacturer, Water pump bearings supplier

Our water pump bearings are widely used into the automobiles, motorcycles, engineering equipment, electro-motive tools, textile and printing machinery, and OA equipment etc.

Water pump bearing is the most important part of the water pump. Because the high speed of revolution, usually it reaches 10000rpm/min, it requires the high-load ability of water pump bearing. And only this can keep the life of bearing under the high speed revolution.
